

IN THE MUNICIPAL COURT OF THE CITY OF TIGARD
COUNTY OF WASHINGTON, STATE OF OREGON

In the Matter of ) ) RULE 13
COLLECTION OF UNPAID JUDGMENTS ) Supplemental Court Rule

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:

Use of Collection Agencies: A collection agency may be used in failure to comply cases as follows:

1. When payment on a judgment is a minimum of 30 days overdue and the defendant has not made satisfactory arrangements for payment; or,
2. When the defendant has made arrangements to pay the judgment and has failed to meet the terms of the payment agreement; or
3. When a default judgment has been entered and the defendant hasn't paid or made payment arrangements within 30 days of default.

Collection fees: As provided by ORS 697.105, the court may add to any fine or judgment a fee for the cost of collection as follows:

1. A collection fee based on the fee of the private collection agency may be added to each fine or judgment by the court or Violations Bureau whenever a defendant has failed to pay as agreed and a collection agency is being used.
2. The collection fee shall be waived by the court or Violations Bureau, if the defendant fully complies with the conditions of payment set forth in the judgment or payment agreement.
3. All or any portion of the collection fee may be waived or suspended by the court upon a showing of special circumstances such as hardship or indigence.
